Sergeant at Arms / Happy Dollars

Phil Hatch

"With Fines to Boot"

$ If you were a late arrival, did not have your Rotary pin or badge, were MIA last week, and did not attend the electronic recycling event, you paid the price! Just remember not to fall in the above categories when Phil is on watch!

$ Past President Mike M. was fined for giving Phil the opportunity to join the Sgt-At-Arms gang.

$ Among some of the fines and finding at the Electronic Recycling Event ...

* Chris J. looks very much like a border patrol officer. He did a fine job, but his kids did even better by raising over $2,100 in donations!!

* Phil H. shows us an example of how to re-boot a computer.

* John H. was fined because of a mouse mix-up.

* Curt S. did bring his new computer to the recycling event, but tried unsuccessfully to pull out his emails with a screwdriver!

* Dru L and his dead pick up truck. Dru did not realize this is NOT the auto recycling fundraiser!

* Jim M gets the social butterfly award for flirting with all the donors!

* Leo M. avoids a ticket by almost running over Ted G. with his heavy duty truck! A color TV set was a casualty in the incident.

$ Dru L was fined for failing to pay his meal last week. Dru wasn't hungry!

$ John A is supporting the James Bond 007 look, with a new cane. Bullets are optional.

Many Happy Dollars This Morning.....

$ Phil H. remembered the words "Do you believe in miracles", from the 1980 Winter Olympics as it touched close to home. Phil's mother is fully recovered and doing well after an extended illness and surgery.

$ Nancy K wished the Celtics the best.

$ Doug H. is now a recruiter for Prudential NE Properties.

$ Chris J. was happy that today was the last day of school, both of his children are on the All Star team, and the excellent fellowship shared at the Electronic Recycling Event.

$ Kitty C. thanked President Dennis for the completed DVD. Kitty was also happy to see all the past presidents of our club.

$ Ed Brill was proud to say the Saco Bay club has the most fun.

$ Jimmy C. is glad to be back!

$ Greg C. is going to California to see his daughter and will be taking a flag with him per the Rotary Minute suggestion.

$ Peter B won in a golf tournament in Ottawa

$ Al H will not be here next week, he will be celebrating his 88 birthday. Happy Birthday Al!

$ John H wishes all Dads a happy Father's Day.

$ Ed B thanked all Bon Appétit helpers!

$ Bonny M was thankful that to the dog rescuer.

$ Kurt S thanked Dave W for his work this weekend.

$ David G was happy to be in the presence of all past presidents.

$ David W thanked all those who helped on the Electronics Recycling Project.

$ Dan C was happy to celebrate 20 years of Saco Bay Rotary fellowship.

$ Mike M. had a full garage after the word was out that he was accepting electronic items for recycling.
